

ILA Berlin 2026

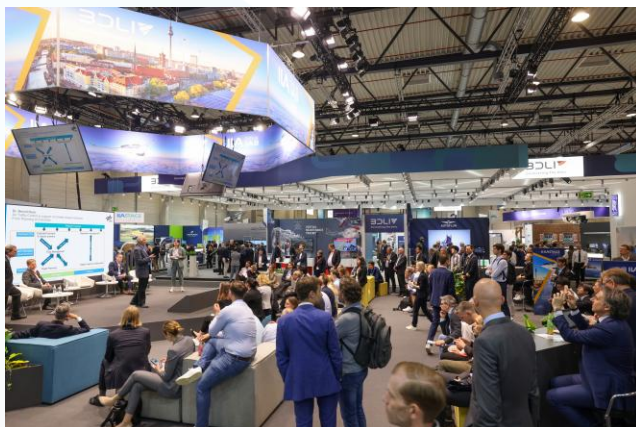

Be part of the BDLI joint pavilion and the SME lounge in the BDLI chalet

For the best possible trade show presence

The ILA Berlin will take place from June 10 to 14, 2026, in Berlin at the BER airport exhibition grounds.

With the BDLI joint pavilion in Hall C (formerly Hall 2), the German Aerospace Industries Association offers your company an attractive and cost-effective way to exhibit and network. We invite you to present yourself to the best possible effect by joining our strong community.

The SME lounge at the BDLI chalet is a high-quality alternative to, or addition to, an exhibition stand.

#PioneeringAerospace: ILA Berlin 2026

The ILA Berlin is Germany's leading aerospace show and one of the most important industry gatherings in Europe. Situated at the heart of the continent, it brings together leading figures from industry, politics, research and the armed forces.

This is about more than just technology – key issues of European competitiveness, sovereignty and innovative strength will be discussed at the ILA, particularly on the ILA stages in the middle of the exhibitor halls, where decision-makers from all over the world will share their visions and ideas for the future of the industry.

Aviation, aerospace, defense and suppliers – the ILA networks the entire ecosystem. This is where genuine partnerships are formed, partnerships that drive innovation and bring ideas to the runway.
